❖ Spring Access Semester

For students who missed the deadline for regular spring semester classes at Roxbury Community College, there's still time to register for the Spring Access Semester, which begins on February 13th. Registration for the Spring Access Semester ends on February 10th. For more information, call the Admissions Office at 617.541.5310.

Roxbury Community College's Dual Enrollment Program allows Boston Public High School students who qualify to register for Spring Access classes that do not require prerequisites. These courses can be used to fulfill high school graduation requirements while earning credit towards a college degree. For more information on the Dual Enrollment Program call 617.933.7418.

❖ Corporate and Community Education to Offer New Courses

Roxbury Community College's Corporate and Community Education Department, within the Division of Continuing Education, will be offering 4 new programs for the spring 2012 semester. These exciting programs, designed to meet workforce needs, include Veterinary Assistant Program, Electronic Health Record Specialist Program, Ophthalmic Medical Assistant Program and Professional Pharmacy Technician Program. Successful students learn specific job skills, gain internships and clinical experience, and are provided with ongoing support with career planning, personal development, and job placement assistance. For further information, including dates and times of Information Sessions, call 617.933.7402.

❖ RCC Partners With Jumpstart in Massachusetts

Roxbury Community College joins eleven major metropolitan colleges that are working with Jumpstart Massachusetts. According to information on its website, "Jumpstart partners more than 650 college and community volunteers to work with 1,400 Massachusetts preschool children living in low-income neighborhoods in Greater Boston, Southeast Massachusetts, and the Merrimack Valley. Together for the entire year, they work on the language and literacy skills these children need to succeed not only in school, but also in life." Local Jumpstart sponsors include BNY Mellon, Boston Bruins Foundation, MetLife Foundation, Red Sox Foundation, and Starbucks.

❖ Vice President Janey on Radio

Dr. Stephanie C. Janey, Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs at Roxbury Community College, was a guest on Touch 106.1 FM on January 6th. Host Charles Clemmons listened as Vice President Janey discussed, among other things, what's new and exciting at Roxbury Community College, the Associate Degree and Certificate programs RCC offers, and how to apply for financial aid.
